

EZYSTEP CONVEYANCING

EXPERIENCED, REPUTABLE, LOCALLY OWNED & OPERATED

WHY USE A CONVEYANCER?

A conveyancing transaction typically involves significant amounts of money being transferred between multiple parties. A licensed conveyancer works in your best interests to ensure the integrity of the transaction. You can be completely confident your conveyancing transaction is being handled by a licensed conveyancing professional, with best practice legal knowledge, skills and expertise. You can rest assured your conveyancing transaction is accurate and secure, backed by a professional association as well as added consumer protections in the form of professional indemnity insurance and a fidelity fund.

OUR MISSION

Our overall mission is to become an entrepreneur in the conveyancing field, to deliver a stress free atmosphere for clientele to experience when choosing Ezystep Conveyancing. We're a family focused business that understands in the average household, your schedule is not always set in concrete. We opt to eliminate the hassle of limited hours to enquire, to provide an efficient range of services accessible to our clients 7 days a week, offering cost-effective services to maximise our availability to a broad spectrum of customers.

WHO ARE WE?

Ezystep Conveyancing is a locally owned business operated by Jamie-lee Carragher. Our objective is to provide a convenient and educated standard of service that is based around the life changing involvement of selling or purchasing a home. Jamie-Lee and her team of three licensed conveyancers are members of the Australian Institute of Conveyancers which means you can rely on their outstanding knowledge and specialist training that they engage in compulsory professional development programs and hold indemnity insurance for professional protection. This integrity is sealed with over fifteen years of experience assisting in conveyancing matters.
